1. All is rea - dy, the Mas - ter, said, All is rea - dy, the feast is spread;
2. All is rea - dy, He call - eth still; Come, and wel - come, who - ev - er will;
3. Though His mer - cy pro - longs your day, Time is pre - cious, no more de - lay;
4. Take the par - don His love be - stows, Take the wa - ter of life that flows;

Sweet His mes - sage of love to all, Yet how ma - ny will slight the call!
Bring your bur - dens of doubts and fears, Bring your sor - row, your cares and tears.
Now He list - ens to hear your prayer, Haste the gar - ment of praise to wear.
Lo, He stand - eth be - side the door: Hear the Spir - it your hearts im - plore.

Why, why, why will you die? Ask, and the Sav - ior will free - ly for - give; Why, why, why will you die? On - ly a look, and your soul shall live.
