

Bethlehem's Star

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby (1820–1915)

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1923

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. There's a star that a - rose on the beau - ti - ful night, When
2. 'Twas the star that the sag - es pre - dict - ed should rise; It
3. 'Tis the star that for ag - es the pil - grims have blest, The an - gels des - cend - ed, all love - ly and bright; And, fold - ing their pin - ions, pro - shone like a gem on the blue eth - er skies; The first and the fair - est that her - ald of glad - ness, the bea - con of rest; Its lus - ter un - fad - ing no

Refrain

- claimed to the world The stand - ard of mer - cy thro' Je - sus un - furled.
jew - eled the train That glist - ened and spar - kled on Beth - le - hem's plain. Beau - ti - ful star, cloud can ob - scure, It leads on to glo - ry, its ha - ven is sure.

Beth - le - hem's star, Shin - ing, still shin - ing, from re - gions a - far; Beau - ti - ful star, peace - ful and bright, Smile on us ev - er by day and by night.