

By and By

Fanny Crosby, 1915

Bentley DeForest Ackley

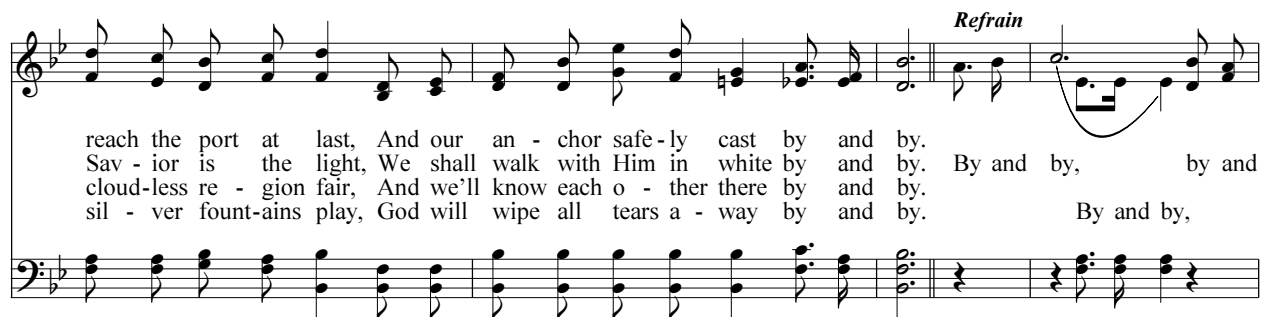

♩=100

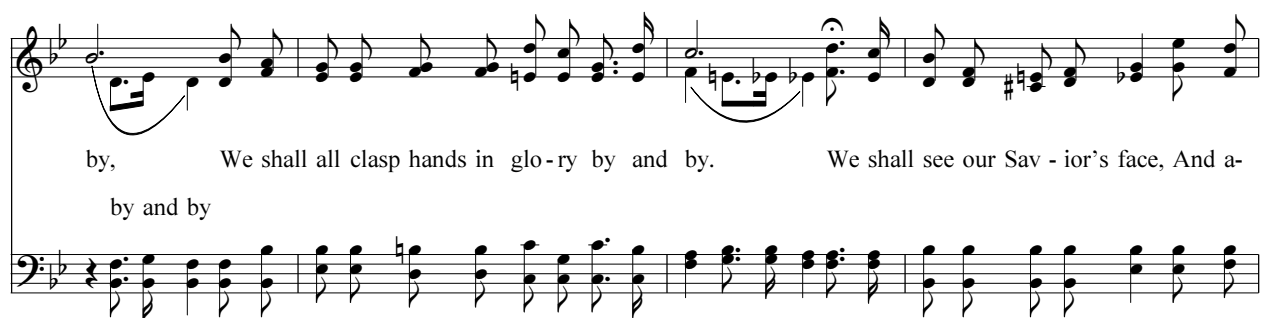

1. We shall all clasp hands in glo - ry by and by; We shall
2. We shall wake no more to sor - row by and by; In the
3. We shall cross the si - lent ri - ver by and by; We shall 4. We shall join the an - gel chor - us by and by, With the tell re - demp-tion's sto - ry by and by; When the voyage of life is past We shall smile of end - less mor-row by and by; Where our faith is lost in sight, Where the rest and dwell to - ge - ther by and by; Palms of vic - tory we shall bear In that dear ones gone be - fore us by and by; In that realm of per - fect day, Where the reach the port at last, And our an - chor safe - ly cast by and by.

Refrain
Sav - ior is the light, We shall walk with Him in white by and by. By and by, by and cloud-less re - gion fair, And we'll know each o - ther there by and by.
sil - ver fount-ains play, God will wipe all tears a - way by and by. By and by, by, We shall all clasp hands in glo - ry by and by. We shall see our Sav - ior's face, And a -

by and by

- dore His won-drous grace, We shall feel His fond em-brace by and by.