

Coming, Coming, Yes They Are

J. Wakefield MacGill (1829-1902), alt.

Edward Husband

♩=110

1. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, From the wild and
 2. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, From the fields and
 3. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, From the In - dus,
 4. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, From the steppes of
 5. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, From the fro - zen
 6. Com-ing, com-ing, yes they are, Com-ing, com-ing from a - far, All to meet in scorch-ing des - ert, Af - ric's sons a - waked from sleep; Je - sus' love has crowd - ed ci - ties, Ch - ina ga - thers to His feet; In His love Shem's and the Gan - ges, Stea - dy flows the liv - ing stream, To love's o - cean, Rus - sia drear-y, From Sla - von - ia's scat - tered lands, They are yield - ing realms of mid - night, O - ver many a wear - y mile, To ex - change their plains of glo - ry, All to sing His prais - es sweet; What a chor - us, drawn and won them, At His cross they bow and weep.

 gen - tle child-ren, Now have found a safe re - treat.
 to His bo - som, Cal - va - ry their won-d'ring theme.
 soul and spir - it In - to Je - sus' lov - ing hands.
 soul's long win - ter For the sum - mer of His smile.
 what a meet-ing, With the fam - i - ly com - plete!