

Don't Lose the Vision

Frederick W. Suffield, 1920

Kittie Louise Suffield

♩=110

1. O have you had the vi - sion, have you heard the cry Of
 2. The young men shall see vi - sions and the old dream dreams, The
 3. I - sai - ah had a vi - sion of the Lord on high Whose
 4. The vi - sion of the pro - phet showed to him his sin; He
 5. The fields are white to har - vest, have you heard the call? The mill - ions lost and per - ish - ing, O do not let them die; Their wild - er - ness be wa - tered, in the des - ert shall be streams, The train filled all the tem - ple and he heard the ser - aph cry; O cried out, "Woe is me! for I am still un - clean with - in"; The Spir - it now is wait - ing, won't you yield to Him our all? The souls have all been pur - chased at how great a cost! Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.

 Spir - it poured up - on us, cleans - ing from all dross, Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.
 Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, is the Lord of hosts, Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.
 fire from off the al - tar purged his heart from dross, Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.
 time is swift - ly pass - ing, O! the fear - ful loss, Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.

Refrain

Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross; Don't lose the vi - sion, or the cause will suf - fer loss; If you want to reach a - no - ther, Keep in touch with Christ, my bro - ther, Don't lose the vi - sion, keep your eye up-on the cross.