

All Hail, Holy Day!

Adapted by Richard W. Adams, 2019

Anonymous, 1900

♩=145

1. All hail, ho - ly day! We wel - come a - gain With grate-ful re - joic-ing the
2. The an - gels an - nounce the tid - ings, and laud The De - i - ty's won-der-ful
3. See shep-herds and kings the Christ-child sur - round, And to Him their of - fer-ings morn Which brought the glad news to Ju - de-a's plain Of Je - sus— Im-birth, Which brings hope to man, new glo - ry to God, Good will, peace and bring; With faith now made sight, they humb-ly bow down, Re - ver - ing their

- man-u - el— born! O won - der of won - ders, the King sent His Son! See joy to the earth. And down through the ag - es still sounds the re - frain, The Sav - ior and King; Our gifts we now bring Him, and hearts' ear - nest plea, With God in a frail, help-less child! Om - ni - po - tent Rul - er and man - kind in cho - rus by an - gels be - gun; Earth ech-oes to Hea - ven the glor - i - ous love's grate-ful tears in our eyes, We wor-ship the King on our love's bend-ed

One, Je - ho - vah with man re - con - ciled.
strain: Sing praise to the in - car-nate Son!
knee, A gift He will ne - ver de - spise.