

All of You Who Walked in Darkness

Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, 2012

Felix Mendelssohn, 1840

♩ = 112

1. All of you who walked in dark-ness Who have known the fear of night—
2. Still Christ comes to save God's peo-ple, Still he comes to those op-pressed.
3. In this time of cel-e-bra-tion, May we show what life can be,

Now re-joice and sing with glad-ness; Come and see the won-drous light! God has turned your
To the folks who toil and strug-gle, God has sent the ve-ry best. To the young and As we care for God's cre-a-tion, As we serve the Prince of Peace. Seek-ing jus-tice tears to songs, Lift-ing bur-dens, right-ing wrongs. God sent us a ti-ny boy to the old, To the home-less, tired and cold, To the lost, to those who mourn, ev-ery-where, Lift-ing bur-dens o-thers bear, May we glad-ly serve and pray—

Refrain

Bring-ing hope and peace and joy.
To the world, a child is born. In one lit-tle ba-by's birth, God knelt down to love the earth.
Know-ing why we live this way:
