

Altogether Lovely

George Frederick Root, 1883

George Frederick Root, alt.

♩=95

1. Beau-ti - ful the fields be - yond the riv - er, Glo - ri - ous the thou - sands ga - thered
2. Al - to - ge - ther, al - to - ge - ther love - ly, He is call - ing ten - der - ly to
3. Al - to - ge - ther, al - to - ge - ther love - ly, Hear His voice, how ten - der still the there, But who in Heav'n so full of grace and glo - ry, thee; My soul, why not ac - cept His great sal - va - tion, call; "Come, come, ye wea - ry ones and hea - vy la - den,

Refrain

Who with Him, our Sav - ior, can com - pare?
Of - fered now so rich, so full, so free? Oh, He is the chief a - mong ten Come to Me and let your bur - dens fall."

thou - sand; Roll His praise in joy - ful waves a - long; For al - to - ge - ther, al - to - ge - ther love - ly, Shall for - ev - er be our hap - py song.