

The Angels Have Charge over Thee

Wildie Thayer, 1910

Henry Lake Gilmour

♩=117

1. In time of tempt - a - tion, I hear a sweet voice, So
2. When tri - als a - rise, and when dan - ger is near, A
3. Then rest, sweet - ly rest, on the prom - ise of God, From ten - der - ly whis - per to me, "Be strong in the Lord, sweet - ly light in the dark - ness I see; This prom - ise so blest bring - eth sin and its pow - er be free; O be of good cheer, there is

Refrain
rest on His Word, The an - gels have charge o - ver thee."
comf - ort and rest, "The an - gels have charge o - ver thee." "The an - gels have charge o - ver no - thing to fear, "The an - gels have charge o - ver thee."

thee, To keep thee in all thy ways"; This bless - ed as - sur - ance brings peace to my soul, My ritard.

heart is o'er - flow - ing with praise.