

The Angels' Sweet Refrain

Grant Colfax Tullar, 1903

Isaac Hickman Meredith

♩ = 103

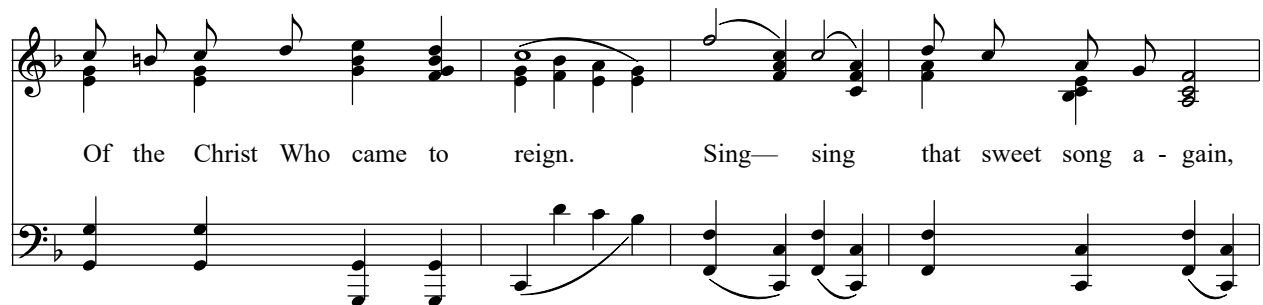

1. As the shep - herds watched at mid - night On the hills so far a - way,
2. All the earth was clothed with beau - ty When there came that an - gel throng,
3. Though we could not hear the an - gels Sing - ing forth their glad re - frain;

Sud - den - ly a light shone 'round them, Turn - ing mid - night in - to day.
Ev - ery heart was filled with glad - ness, As they list - ened to the song;
We can cel - e - brate His birth - day As it comes to us a - gain.

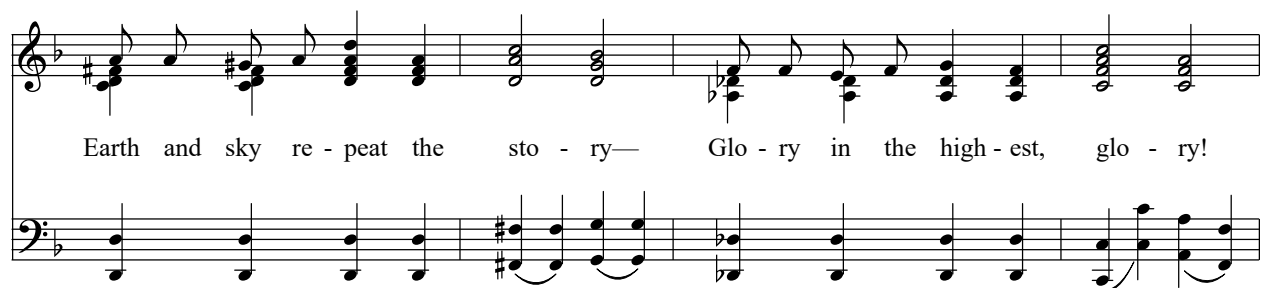

Then each heart was filled with won - der, For they could not un - der - stand
Ne - ver had they heard such mu - sic, Or be - held such won - drous light,
We can, like the shep - herds, wor - ship, Lay our lives at Je - sus' feet;

Why the an - gel host that ga - thered Brought to them such mu - sic grand.
Fill - ing all the earth with glo - ry, As the an - gel brought that night. An - gels,
With our hearts we can a - dore Him And the an - gels' song re - peat.

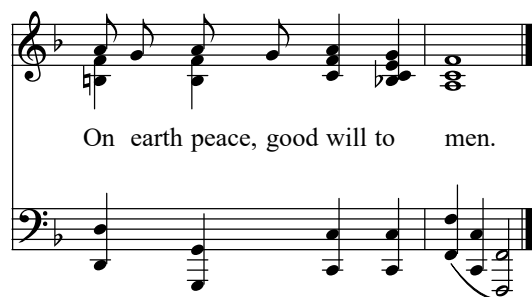

sing your sweet re - frain— Glo - ry in the high - est, glo - ry! Tell the wait - ing earth your sto - ry

Of the Christ Who came to reign. Sing— sing that sweet song a - gain,

Earth and sky re - peat the sto - ry— Glo - ry in the high - est, glo - ry!

On earth peace, good will to men.
