

Angels Would Tell It

Ruth Alleyn, 1895

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩=85

1. Joy in the Gos - pel! Glad news of sal - va - tion! Swift let it
 2. Pass - ing the an - gels in bright ranks of glo - ry, Leav - ing the
 3. All those who know it are preach - ers of Je - sus, Lit - tle or
 4. Then when He com - eth to ga - ther His loved ones, Bear - ing them fly to the ends of the earth; Bless - ings from Hea - ven for ev - er - y sing - ers with harps in their hands; Christ came to mor - tals and gave them His big, they should speak in His name; Do - ing His will, for He ev - er - more back to His home in the sky, Out of all lands will He sum - mon His na - tion— An - gels would tell it, for they know its worth.

Refrain
 sto - ry: “Tell it to o - thers in ev - er - y land!”
 sees us; Giv - ing the pen - nies to spread forth His fame. An - gels would saved sons, Saved thro’ His child - ren— shall it be you or I?

They’d sing hal - le - tell it, how grand - ly pro - claim! An - gels would tell it, His glor - i - ous fame!

- lu-jahs, their loud hal-le - lu-jahs, And spread thro’ the na-tions His life bring-ing name.