

Are the Signals All Right?

Samuel Peach, 1887

William Evander Penn

♩=78

1. Wel - come, band of true toil - ers, Who by thou - sands are found On the hun - dreds of
 2. By the red lights of dan - ger, Have you left the down line? By the green lights of
 3. With a love for Christ's ser - vice, And your soul well sup - plied, With in - spir - èd di -
 4. And at last when your jour - neys Up and down shall be done, And life's train shall in rail - ways And the sta - tions a - round; There's a ques - tion con - cern - ing Hea - ven's call - ing so cau - tion Have you know - ledge di - vine? Can you say when on du - ty, Ei - ther day - time or

 - rec - tions Ful - ly test - ed and tried; With the points set for glo - ry, With the me - tals all tri - umph To the ter - mi - nus come; Will you sing as you're near - ing Hea - ven's stores of de -

Refrain

bright: Are you hap - py in Je - sus, "Are the sig - nals all right?"
 night, I am hap - py in Je - sus, And the "sig - nals are right?" With a clear shin - ing tight, Are you hap - py in Je - sus, And the "sig - nals all right?" Last verse:
 - light, Praise the Lord! Hal - le - lu - jah! All the "sig - nals all right." With a clear shin - ing light, Is your lamp burn - ing bright? Have you oil in your ves - sels? Are the sig - nals all right?

 light, Yes, my lamp's burn - ing bright, I am hap - py in Je - sus, With the sig - nals all right.