

Are We Waiting?

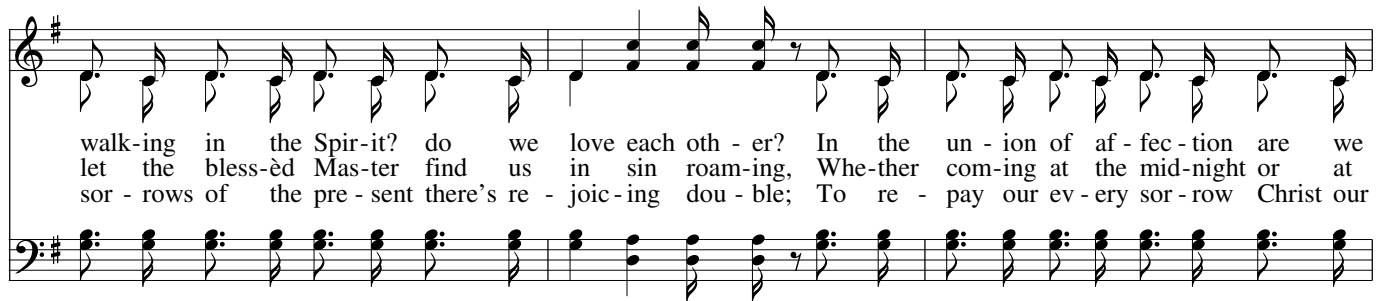

Charles Price Jones, 1899

Charles Price Jones

♩=93

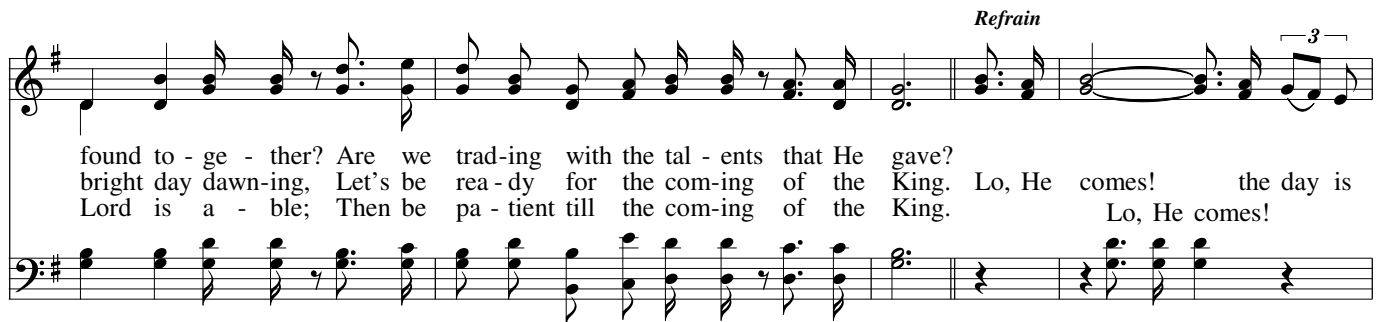

1. Are we wait - ing for the com - ing of the Lord, my bro - ther? Are we
2. Let us trim our lamps, my bro - ther, and a - bide His com - ing, Nei - ther
3. We'll re - joice that He is com - ing, tho' we now see trou - ble; For the walk - ing in the Spir - it? do we love each oth - er? In the un - ion of af - fec - tion are we let the bless - ed Mas - ter find us in sin roam - ing, Whe - ther com - ing at the mid - night or at sor - rows of the pre - sent there's re - joic - ing dou - ble; To re - pay our ev - ery sor - row Christ our found to - ge - ther? Are we trad - ing with the tal - ents that He gave?

Refrain

bright day dawn - ing, Let's be rea - dy for the com - ing of the King. Lo, He comes! the day is Lord is a - ble; Then be pa - tient till the com - ing of the King. Lo, He comes!

nigh! Look ye for Him, ev - ery eye! Com - ing with the clouds of glo - ry, All the earth shall see Him! Hal - le - lu - jah! for the com - ing draw - eth nigh!
the day is nigh! Look for Him, ev - ery eye!