

Are You Looking for a Friend?

Alice Esther Hansell, 1920

Alice Esther Hansell

♩ = 90

1. Are you look-ing for a friend, One who will your life de-fend, A friend in - deed, whose
2. Are you look-ing for a friend, One on whom you can de-pend, A friend who stand-eth
3. He's the dear-est in the world, For when hu - man lips are curled, He's pre - cious, oh, so love is deep and true; There is one close by your side, And with true when o - thers fail; You will find the Lord, in - deed, Is a pre - cious, day by day, And He's wait - ing now for you, For your

Refrain
you He would con - fide He is wait - ing to re - lieve and com - fort you. friend in ev - ery need, And He bids you have the faith on Him to call. This heart and ser - vice, too; Will you take Him as your friend while now you may? This friend is Je - sus, He died on the cross to save you from sin; This won - der - ful friend is Je - sus, my Lord, This rit.

friend who will keep to the end, This won-der-ful friend is Je - sus.
won-der-ful friend