

As in the Days of Haggai

Joshua F. Drake, 2006

Joshua F. Drake, 2005

$\text{♩} = 130$

1. As in the days of Hag-gai when The He-brews hewed from stone Je-
2. The tem-ple of Ze-ru-ba-bel, Like that of Sol-o-mon Sus-
3. God shook the earth and Gen-tiles then Brought trea-sure to His store, But

- ho-vah's tem-ple, built a-gain To serve their God a-lone, So
- tained at-tack, gave way, and fell To rise and fall a-gain. But heaven and earth will shake a-gain When our King comes once more. Then too our hearts can be re-made, From stone to flesh—the heav'n-ly blade Carves when God's tem-ple died and rose He kept the prom-ise giv'n to those Who all that can be shak-en will Be purged and dross re-moved un-til He out an earth-ly home.

built the tem-ple then.
clears His thresh-ing floor.