

Asking Thy Care

G. A. Sanders, 1879

Daniel Franklin Hodges

♩=115

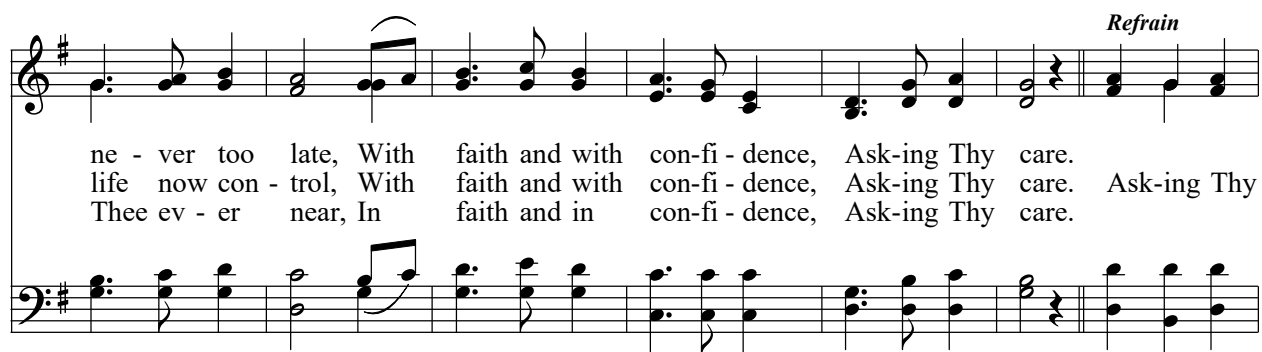

1. Dear Sav - ior: the bat - tle of life is so great, Its bur - dens for
2. My hope is in Thee, Thou de - sire of my soul, My trust and af -
3. Ah, strength-en my cour - age, my spir-it now cheer Life's path-way, so me are too hea - vy to bear; I come, for with Thee it is

- fec - tions shall none oth - er share; To Thee ev - er com - ing, my cloud-y, make bright, plain and clear. Now help me to tra - vel, with ne - ver too late, With faith and with con-fi - dence, Ask-ing Thy care.

Refrain

life now con - trol, With faith and with con-fi - dence, Ask-ing Thy care. Ask-ing Thy Thee ev - er near, In faith and in con-fi - dence, Ask-ing Thy care.

care, ask-ing Thy care, With faith and with con-fi - dence, Ask-ing Thy care.