

As Shadows Lengthen

Richard W. Adams, 2009

William Henry Monk, 1861

♩=115

1. As sha - dows length-en and the night grows cold, Not see - ing
2. One thing we pray, when ev - ening round us falls, Show us the
3. That we may tell to gen - e - ra - tions new, Tell of a
4. Then, when our task is done and comes the wing Of death's bright how life's pag - es will un - fold, Give us Your peace as, yield - ing to Your place on mem - ory's dark-ened walls, As dim - ming eye and fail - ing flesh grow faith - ful - ness for - ev - er true, Tell of a power that keeps us to the an - gel, teach us how to sing, With soar - ing con - fi - dence to mount on will, We trust the au - thor loves and keeps us still.

weak, Show us where pic - tures of Your love still speak, end, Tell of our God, pro - tect - or, guide and friend.
high, Fly - ing to gold - en streets be - yond the sky.