

As We Go Marching Home

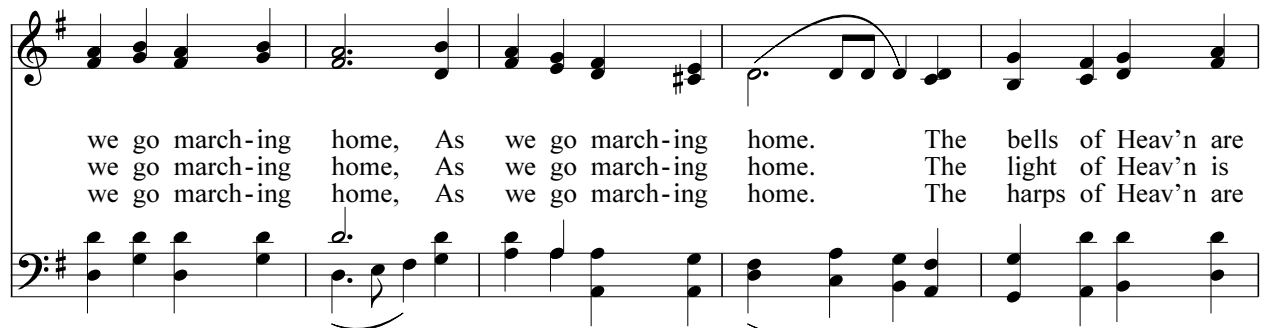

Lawrence W. Scott, 1890

James Henry Fillmore, Sr.

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. The bells of Heav'n are ring - ing, The bells of Heav'n are ring - ing, As
2. The light of Heav'n is shin - ing, The light of Heav'n is shin - ing, As
3. The harps of Heav'n are play - ing, The harps of Heav'n are play - ing, As we go march-ing home, As we go march-ing home. The bells of Heav'n are we go march-ing home, As we go march-ing home. The light of Heav'n is we go march-ing home, As we go march-ing home. The harps of Heav'n are ring - ing, The choirs of Heav'n are sing - ing, The pearl - y gates are swing - ing, As shin - ing, The shade of night's de - clin - ing, The clouds have sil - ver lin - ing, As play - ing, The heirs of Heav'n are pray - ing, To God their hom - age pay - ing, As we go march-ing home.

we go march-ing home.
we go march-ing home.