

Awake and Watch

Lucy D. Harrington, 1890

Ira David Sankey

♩=108

1. A - wake and watch! the light is dawn-ing; A - wake! the night will soon be
2. The Day Star bright o'er all is shin - ing— A - wake and hail the com-ing
3. There waits for thee a heav-en-ly greet-ing; Haste then, thy mas - ter's call o-
4. The King! the King! the call comes ring - ing; O Church of Christ! O Zi - on gone; In O - rient sky there gleams the morn - ing— A - rise, and day! Re - new thy strength, cease all re - pin - ing, A - wake, a-

- bey; Soon, soon shall end thy night of weep - ing; Thy God shall free! Look up and join the heav - en - ly sing - ing; Thy king is gird thine ar - mor on.

Refrain

- rise, and watch and pray. A-wake! the night will soon be gone; A-rise and gird thine ar-mor wipe thy tears a - way. com-ing soon for thee.

on! A-wake! the night will soon be gone; A-rise and gird thine ar-mor on!

