

Awake, Thou That Sleepest

Beatrice M. Hurditch, 1901

James H. Burke

♩=100

1. A - rise and shine; O Christ-ian, do not slum-ber; Thou may'st not rest too
2. "A - rise!" says Christ, and lie not in the sha - dow; Thou dost not ga - ther
3. Rise up, then, Christ - ian, and pur - sue thy jour - ney, And Christ shall be thy
4. As ris - ing sun, when in His bright-ness shin - ing Doth chase the dark-ness long to hide the light; Let ev - ery step be "Christ" a - long thy path-way, For pro - fit from such rest; Leave not thy first love for the sake of plea - sure; To con - fi - dence and stay; The light of His sweet smile shall rest up - on thee, His of the night a - way; So may thy path, in this dark world of sor - row, Shine

Refrain
it will lead thee up to Heav-en's height.
live to God is to be tru - ly blest. A - wake, thou that sleep - est, And a - pre - sence shall go with thee all the way. a - wake, sleep-est a - wake, more and more un - til the per - fect day.

- rise from the dead, And Christ shall give thee, Shall give thee light.
a-rise the dead, and Christ shall give give thee light.