

Be a Golden Sunbeam

Isaac W. Naylor, 1894

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=95

1. Be a gold-en sun - beam, ra - di - ant and bright, Chas-ing from life's path-way
2. When the way is gloom-y, cheer it with a song; Ban - ish mist and sha - dow
3. Be a gold-en sun - beam, bright, and pure, and fair; With thy smiles and son - nets sor - row's frown - ing night; With thy gold - en sun - light dry the dew - y tear, as you march a - long; In the place of bri - ars, strew the fair - est flow'rs, light - en hu - man care; With the sweet - est mu - sic from the harp of love,

Refrain

Scat - ter from the sad heart all its doubt and fear. Be a gold-en sun-beam, Wreath-ing brows with ros - es plucked from heav'n-ly bowers. Be a gold-en sun-beam, Lure the sad and wea-ry to our home a - bove.

beau-ti - ful and bright, Scat-ter-ing clouds of dark-ness with thy shin-ing light:
joy - ful-ly and glad, Scat-ter-ing rays of sun - light
