

Beautiful Eastertide

Jennie Morton, 1900

Joseph Lincoln Hall

$\text{♩} = 87$

1. O wel - come, bright morn - ing, we love thy sweet light, For
2. Re - joice! O ye Gen - tiles, that death is no more, The
3. The day of re - joic - ing for man - kind is here, The past is the dark-ness of sin's bit-ter night; We lift our glad voic-es in grave's dread - ful tri - umph for - ev - er is o'er; Shout! shout the glad an - them with grave, robbed of ter - ror, no long-er hath fear; Then lift your glad voic-es in

Refrain Faster

tri - umph to - day, Our glor-ious Re-deem-er lives.
voice loud and strong, Our glor-ious Re-deem-er lives. O beau-ti - ful Eas-ter-tide, Thy tri - umph to - day, Our glor-ious Re-deem-er lives.

1.
won-der-ful mes-sage send far and wide; O beau-ti - ful Eas-ter-tide, We hail, thee, O joy-ous

2.
day. O beau-ti - ful Eas-ter-tide, We love thy re - ful-gent ray.