

Behold, He Cometh

Clarence Milton Seamans, 1902, alt.

Clarence Milton Seamans

♩ = 102

1. Be - hold, He com-eth with clouds, The King of kings to be; And
 2. Be - hold, He com-eth with clouds, The Judge whom all must meet; And
 3. Be - hold, He com-eth with clouds, All earth - ly pomp shall pale; All
 4. Be - hold, He com-eth with clouds, His com - ing draw - eth near; Come,

rit. Refrain
 ev - ery eye His face shall see Shine forth in dread-ful ma - jes - ty. they who pierced His hands and feet Shall stand be-fore His judg-ment seat. Be-kin - dreds of the earth shall wail, And sin - ful men be - fore Him quail. Be-now His voice of mer - cy hear— Be rea - dy when He shall ap - pear.

- hold, He com-eth with clouds, The Vic-tor ov-er sin; Lift up your heads, O ye
 - hold, He comes, Be - hold, He comes, ov-er sin, gates And let the King come in; Be lift-ed up, ye ev - er - last-ing doors, Now let His reign be-

- gin; Wide o - pen swing, and let the King The King of glo-ry in.