

The Bells of Hope

Isaac Hickman Meredith, 1905

Isaac Hickman Meredith

$\text{♩} = 110$  In martial style, processional if desired

1. The bells of hope are ring-ing, O'er all the world to - day, And count-less voic-es sing-ing Join
 2. The bells of hope are ring-ing, All na-ture's bright and gay; She comes from death of win-ter Re-
 3. The bells of hope are ring-ing; O sad-dened hearts now sing, For cru-el death is van-quished, And in the hap-py lay; The world is full of glad-ness, For hope to-day was born, When

Boys Parts

 - splen-dent on her way; So help us, Heav'n-ly Fa-ther, To count all sin as dead, And Christ is ris-en— King. The grave could not re-tain Him, Nor prove its boast-ed might, He

Refrain

Christ, the King of glo-ry A-rose on Eas-ter morn. grow with quick-ened pur-pose In Christ our liv-ing head. Ring out, ye mer-ry, mer-ry bells, Good burst the bands a-sun-der And reigns in death-less light.

news to all you bring; Ring out, ring out, your hap-py chim-ing tells Of Christ our ris-en king.