

Be Loyal, Pilgrims

Harriet E. Rice Jones, 1901

George Blackburn Holsinger

♩ = 93

1. As the days are go - ing by, do you raise God's ban - ner high Who has
2. When the foes of God a - rise, who His blest com - mands des - pise, Do you
3. Be the crowd the more, the less, do you Je - sus' name con - fess, Do you bought you with His own most pre - cious blood? Do you own your Lord each day, while up - bold - ly stand for Je - sus and the right? Are you found with - in His field, there His show your col - ors, pil - grims, ev - ery - where? When be - fore God's host you stand, in the

Refrain

- on your pil - grim way, Are you loy - al to the match-less Son of God? O be faith - ful, O be might-y sword to wield, Clad in ar - mor that is ev - er shin - ing bright?
won - drous glo - ry land, Will your Lord con - fess you 'mid the an - gels there? O be faith - ful to the true, to the One who died for you; By and One who died for you, Face the world with Chris - tian cour - age, For the One who died for you;

by comes sweet re - ward, That shall last while bliss - ful ag - es roll a - way.
By and by comes sweet re - ward, sweet re - ward, a - way