

Be Not Afraid

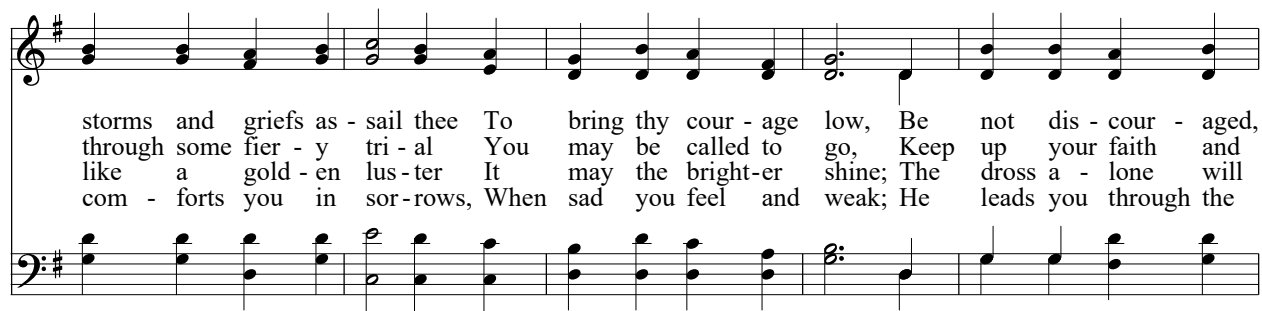

Abraham Metzler, 1886

Anonymous

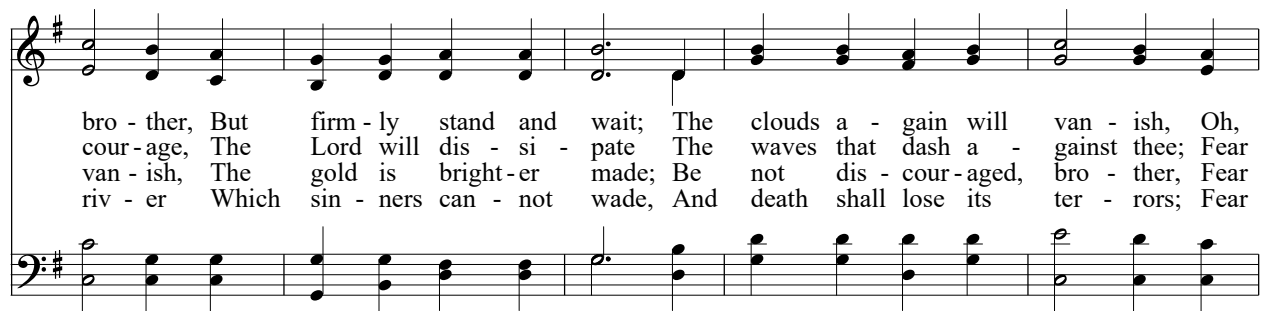

♩=115

1. When tri - als and temp - ta - tions A - round thee dark - ly flow, When
2. When wa - ters of af - flic - tion May seem to o - ver - flow, Or
3. The soul that Je - sus lov - eth He'll chas - ten and re - fine; That
3. "Let not your heart be trou - bled," Oh, hear the Sav - ior speak; God storms and griefs as - sail thee To bring thy cour - age low, Be not dis - cour - aged, through some fier - y tri - al You may be called to go, Keep up your faith and like a gold - en lus - ter It may the bright - er shine; The dross a - lone will com - forts you in sor - rows, When sad you feel and weak; He leads you through the bro - ther, But firm - ly stand and wait; The clouds a - gain will van - ish, Oh, cour - age, The Lord will dis - si - pate The waves that dash a - gainst thee; Fear van - ish, The gold is bright - er made; Be not dis - cour - aged, bro - ther, Fear riv - er Which sin - ners can - not wade, And death shall lose its ter - rors; Fear

Refrain

be thou not a - fraid!
not, be not a - fraid. There is sweet rest in Heav'n, There is sweet rest in Heav'n; There is not, be not a - fraid!
not, be not a - fraid!

sweet rest, There is sweet rest; There is sweet rest in Heav'n.