

Be a Ray of Sunshine

Anna Belle Russell, 1917

George Coles Stebbins

♩=140

1. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go, Shin-ing for the Sav-ior
2. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Com-fort bring to o-thers,
3. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Cheer-ful-ness is need-ed,
4. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Stars will shine the bright-er with a stead-y glow; Bring-ing smiles to sad ones, wip-ing tears a-way, stoop to raise the low; Kind words cost but lit-tle, smiles bring plea-sures, too;

this you can be-stow; Help to chase the sha-dows from this world a-way, in your crown, I know; Sun-shine brought to o-thers will re-lect on you,
Be a ray of sun-shine filled with Heav-en's light,

Fine Refrain
Make your-self a bless-ing ev-ery pass-ing day.
They may lift a bur-den; let them not be few. Be a ray of sun-shine
Bring-ing joy and glad-ness like a shin-ing ray.
Heav'n will be the sweet-er— keep the end in view.
Send-ing forth a mess-age beau-ti-ful and bright.

D.S. al Fine
ev-ery-where you go, Shin-ing for the Sav-ior with a stead-y glow;