

The Breath of the Spirit

Civilla Durfee Martin, 1906

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

1. Long years we have yearned for the show-ers of bless-ing, Have ear - nest-ly prayed for a-
2. The life has been fruit - less, the heart dry and thirst-y, The task of the Mas - ter seemed
3. No tithes have been brought to the store-house of Heav-en, Our pow-ers for ser - vice long
4. No souls have been won for the king - dom of glo - ry, But pow-er for ser - vice we

- bun - dance of rain; Praise God, some are sing - ing the new song of Heav - en, The giv - en in vain; But now ev - 'ry day is a day of rich bless - ing, The dor - mant have lain; But now ev - 'ry im - pulse is used in God's glo - ry, The now may ob - tain; Then glad - ly as reap - ers we en - ter the har - vest, The

Fine Refrain
breath of the Spir-it brings pow-er a - gain.
breath of the Spir-it brings pow-er a - gain. Po - wer a - gain, Po - wer a - breath of the Spir-it brings pow-er a - gain. Pow-er a-gain is on us to-day, Cold-ness and sin are breath of the Spir-it brings pow-er a - gain.

D.S. § al Fine
- gain, Our hearts have been tuned to the sweet re-frain, The tak-en a - way.