

Builder of Ages

Richard W. Adams, 2004

William Fiske Sherwin, 1877

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Build - er of a - - ges, plan - ner di - vine, Draw - ing the
2. Sur - vey - or, ar - chi - tect, crafts - man sub - lime, He drew the
3. First came the cor - ner - stone, Je - sus, our Lord; We hear this
4. "As you are ga - thered here, so here am I, Lift up your
5. So, in this year to come, we vow to build Two things for length and breadth of space and time; Yet al - so Mon - arch with king - dom to blue - print ere the start of time, Build - ing with liv - ing stones fair tem - ples might - y Rock call from the Word: "Build up My Church," said He, "it can - not hearts and song un - to the sky; Call in My ci - ti - zens, do not de - Christ our king, with spir - it filled: First, we will make a house, fit for a build, And gold - en cap - i - tal still yet un - filled.

bright, Fix - ing our hearts in - to His halls of light.
fail; As long as you be - lieve, you will pre - vail."
- lay; Bring in My king - dom of the per - fect day."
King; And build with - in our - selves hearts fit to sing.