

Calling Thee

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1918

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=93

1. Say, what mean thy tears that start, Wear - y child with brok-en heart? Lift thine
2. He has called and sought thee long; Leave the gay and care-less throng; Why de-3. Dost thou on His name be - lieve? Pardon-ing grace wouldst thou re - ceive? Plead with
4. At the cross where once He died, At the fount He o - pened wide, Seek and

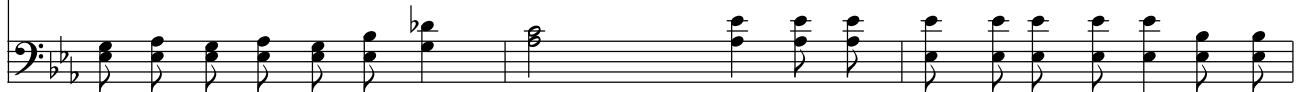

Refrain

- eye! O look and see— 'Tis the Sav - ior call - ing thee. He is lay His own to be, When he still is call - ing thee? He is Him on bend - ed knee— Love di - vine is call - ing thee. He is find sal - va - tion free, While He now is call - ing thee!

call - ing, He is call-ing, call-ing thee, Lift thine eyes! O look and see, 'Tis the call-ing, call-ing, call-ing thee, call - ing,

Sav-ior call-ing thee! 'Tis the Sav-ior call-ing, call-ing, call-ing thee!
call-ing, call-ing thee

