

Christian Warfare

Frederick Louis Rowe, 1910

Frederick Louis Rowe

♩=108

1. A - rouse, ye Christ - ians, stand u - nit - ed In this ho - ly
2. Let no - thing daunt— no foes af - fright, God's brave ones ne - ver
3. Sleep not nor slum - ber— e'er on guard, We'll meet the foe ad-
4. E'en down to death, if God should lead, To serve the cause of war - fare, With shoul-der touch-ing shoul-der, march; Go forth to do and dare.

wa - ver; We'll win the day and plant the cross; Sweet rest comes af - ter la - bor.
- vanc-ing; Each scar and stripe more hon - or gains; Our com-ing joys en - hanc-ing.
Je - sus; All earth-ly praise can - not com-pare With glor-ies God will give us.

Refrain

Then stand ye brave-ly, know no fear; God prom-ised thro' His Son That great-er vic - t'ries yet are ours, If faith doth lead us on.