

Christ Is Risen

Thomas Andrew J. Beasley, 1915

Rufus Norton Grisham

$\text{♩} = 95$

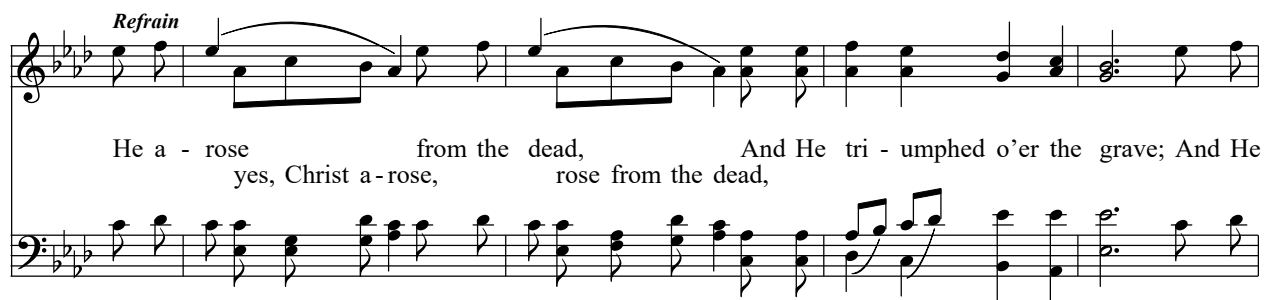

1. 'Twas a dark and gloom-y night When our Lord lay in the
2. His dis - ci - ples, O how sad! All their hopes were blight-ed
3. Wo - men came at break of day To be - hold His lone - ly
4. Let us tell it far and near, This sweet sto - ry o'er and grave; We had hoped that by His might From our sins we would be saved.

now; Their poor hearts were filled with dread, None could tell just what to do.
grave; An - gels said "Be not a - fraid, He is ris - en from the dead."
o'er; Tell it out so all may hear, That He lives for ev - er - more.

Refrain

He a - rose from the dead, And He tri - umphed o'er the grave; And He yes, Christ a - rose, rose from the dead, knows all our need, He's the might-y One to save.

I'm sure He knows our ev-ery need, to save.