

Christmas Music

Marian Froelich, 1883

Gideon Froelich

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Christ-mas mu-sic mer-ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark! how it freights the air;
 2. Christ-mas mu-sic mer-ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark! over the ci - ty's streets;
 3. Christ-mas mu-sic mer-ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark! sound - ing far and near;

While the storm-king holds his wild - est re - vels, Flings, flings snow - drifts ev - ery - where;
 Peal - ing clear - ly while the snow is fall - ing, Pure, pure cover - ing all it meets;
 Hap - py child - ren lend their flute - like voic - es, Praise, praise Christ - mas joy and cheer;

From the bel - fry in the tow - er, In the cha - pel on the hill, Har - mo - ny de -
 The ca - thed - ral's deep - toned thun - der Joins a sweet - ly chim - ing bell, And the pass - er, Sweet - est mu - sic of the heart - strings, Swept by fin - gers skilled by love, Gives to life a

- scends like sil - ver show - er, Or like sweet - ly flow - ing rill.
 lost in joy and won - der, Lists what me - tal tongues can tell.
 charm so true, en - dear - ing, Earth be - comes like Heav'n a - bove.