

The Christmas Story

Julia Harriet Johnston, 1899

B. T. Worden

♩=95

1. Long a - go, in Beth - lehem's man - ger, Christ was born, the Sav - ior King; An - gel
 2. By its clear and ra - diant shin - ing, Wise men from the East were led; "Where is
 3. With no shin - ing star to guide me, I can find my Sav - ior King; He is voi - ces shout the wel - come, Hark, the glad ho - san - nas ring. In the East, a star ap - He, the Heav'n born rul - er? We have seen His star," they said. Her - od's heart was deep - ly near, and He is wait - ing, Will - ing gifts a child may bring. Lord of life and King of

- pear - ing, Her - ald of His wond - rous birth, Shed its beams of light and glo - ry, O'er the trou - bled, But the wise men from a - far, Found the low - ly Beth - lehem cra - dle, Guid - ed glo - ry, Christ a lit - tle child was born; Tell a - gain the Christ - mas sto - ry, Bring Him sin - ning, sor - rowing earth; Shed its beams of light and glo - ry, O'er the sin - ning, sor - rowing by the wond - rous star; Found the low - ly Beth - lehem cra - dle, Guid - ed by the wond - rous gifts on Christ - mas morn; Tell a - gain the Christ - mas sto - ry, Bring Him gifts on Christ - mas earth.

 star.
 morn.

