

Christ the Theme of Song in All Ages

Anson Davies Fitz Randolph (1820-1896)

Arranged by William Lesley Mason, 1899

♩=85

1. Oh, end - less theme of ne'er ceas-ing song And mu-sic, wak - ened by su-
2. Christ, Son of God, and Christ, Son of man; Christ on the cross, and Christ in
3. Thus thro' the years of long ag - es a - go, Thus in the chang-es of these
4. Come, Thou and touch our lips, that we may sing; Come fill our hearts with love to

- prem-est love! How hath it broke from fee - ble lips and strong, The power di-king - ly reign. So thro' the ag - es, since the song be - gan, With swell - ing lat - ter days: One on - ly Lord, our Lord, a - bove, be - low, And He the o - ver - flow: Our Lord, our life, we would some tri - bute bring, And tell the

- vine, and match-less grace to prove.
hosts the saints re - peat the strain.
ob - ject of our end - less praise.
world how much to Thee we owe.

