

Come Home

Addie A. Miller, 1912

C. J. Miller

♩=86

1. The Sav-ior is call-ing, Dear sin-ner, for thee, He's call-ing for
2. The Sav-ior is call-ing From man-sions a-bove, He's call-ing, "Come
3. Why long-er in dark-ness Of sin do you roam? There's death in de-thee; His mer-cy is bound-less, His par-don is free; He's home"; O come all ye wea-ry, And rest in His love; He's

- lay; The Sav-ior's so lov-ing-ly Say-ing, "Come home"; Come

Refrain
call-ing for you and for me.
call-ing so lov-ing-ly, "Come." Come home, come home, Ye home, O dear sin-ner, to-day.

wea-ry and sor-row op-pressed; Come home, come home, Wher-ev-er you roam; O come un-to Je-sus and rest.