

Come, Lord Jesus, Come!

Peter Philip Bilhorn, 1911, alt.

Peter Philip Bilhorn

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. Come, Lord Je - sus! O come quick-ly! This our yearn-ing cry. Come, Thou 2. Come, Thou Lamb of God for sin - ners Slain on Cal - v'ry's cross; Come and
3. We with ea - ger eyes are watch-ing For the crown-ing day, When the

Al - pha and O - me - ga With the clouds on high; For Thy take Thy wea - ry pil - grims From this world of dross; Come and King shall come to catch His Wait - ing bride a - way; We are wait - ing Church is rea - dy, And her robes are white; Come, Lord sanc - ti - fy Thy peo - ple, Fit them for the crown; Come, Lord rea - dy, we are wait - ing, And our lamps are bright, Should He

rit. Refrain
Je - sus, O come quick - ly! Be it noon or night.
Je - sus, O come quick - ly! Come and claim Thy own. We are come this ve - ry mo - ment, Should He come to - night. We are rea - dy, we are wait - ing, With our rea - dy, we are wait - ing, We are rea - dy, we are wait - ing,

1.

2.

lamps all trimmed and burn - ing, With our gar - ments white; wait - ing, Come, Lord

Je - sus, O come quick - ly, Be it noon or night.