

Come, Savior, Come

William Claggett Gage, 1888

Henry Clay Work

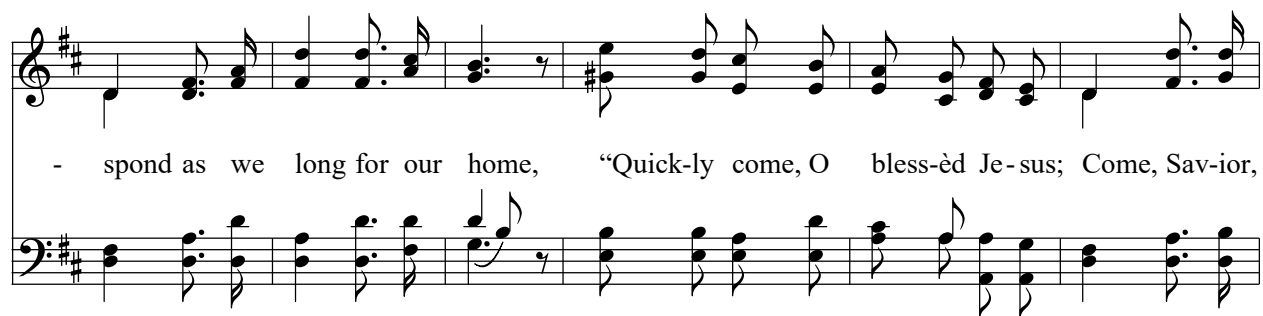

♩=100

1. O'er all the land have the signs now ap - peared, Tell - ing us soon our dear
2. Signs in the sun and the moon and the stars, Faith - ful - ly show that the
3. These, to the pil - grim, are o - mens of cheer; Toil - ing and sigh - ing in
4. Then let us ral - ly, and fresh cour - age take; Soon we will hear our dear

Sav - ior will come; Long has the worn pil - grim watched, hoped and feared, great day is near; Na - tions dis - tressed by the ru - mors of wars, life's gloom - y way; All, all pro - claim that the Sav - ior is near,
Lord's lov - ing voice; Those who will now all their er - rors for - sake,

Wait - ing for the bless - ed hope; O come, Sav - ior, come.
And the hearts of wick - ed men are fail - ing for fear. Sound forth the tid - ings,
And the light is dawn - ing of that soon com - ing day.
Soon the pearl - y gates will en - ter; sing and re - joice.

long, loud and clear; Je - sus is com - ing, and soon will ap - pear; All hearts re -

- spond as we long for our home, "Quick-ly come, O bless-èd Je-sus; Come, Sav-ior, come."