

Come! Tune Your Heart

Christian Gellert, trans. by Frances Cox, 1841

Frederick Arthur Gore-Ouseley (1825–1889)

♩=110

1. Come! tune your heart, to bear its part, And cel - e - brate Mes-
 2. Ex - alt His Name; with joy pro - claim, God loved the world, and
 3. Your re - fuge place in His free grace, Trust in His Name, and
 4. O Christ, to prove for Thee my love In breth - ren Thee my
 5. Come! praise the Lord; in Heav'n are stored Rich gifts for those who

- si - ah's feast with prais - es, with prais - es; Let love in - spire the joy - ful through His Son for - gave us, for - gave us; Oh! what are we, that, Lord, we day by day re - pent you, re - pent you; Ye mock God's Word, who call Him hands shall clothe and cher - ish, and cher - ish, To each sad heart sweet hope im-here His Name es - teem - ed, es - teem - ed; Al - le - lu - ia; Al - le - lu - choir, While to the God of love, glad hymns it rais - es, it rais - es.

 see Thy wond-rous love, in Christ who died to save us, to save us!
 Lord, And fol - low not the pat - tern He hath lent you, hath lent you.
 - part, When worn with care, with sor - row nigh to per - ish, to per - ish.
 - ia; Re - joice in Christ, and praise Him ye re - deem - ed, re - deem - ed.