1. "Hin - der the child - ren," they said to the Mas - ter, "Why should the mo - thers
2. Safe in the arms of His ten - der com - pas - sion, Play - ful the prat - tlers
3. Come now to Je - sus, oh, thrice hap - py wel - come, Wel - come to Him who
4. Then in the day of His se - cond ap - pear - ing, When from His pre - sence bring them to Thee?" "Hin - der them not," was the an - swer of Je - sus, sat on His knee, Wait - ing to get His di - vine ben - e - dic - tion, died on the tree; Tho' He is reign - ing in man - sions of glo - ry, mount - ains shall flee, Sweet - er than ev - er will be the glad wel - come,

Refrain

"Let all the lit - tle ones come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me, come un - to Me, Hap - py to hear Him say, "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me, come un - to Me, Yet does His Spir - it say, "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me, come un - to Me, As thou shalt hear Him say, "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me."

Suf - fer all the lit - tle ones to come un - to Me; Turn them not a - way, but bring them in to - day, And suf - fer them to come un - to Me."
