

Coming Home Tonight

James Rowe, 1910

Peter Philip Bilhorn

♩=125

1. If you are sad and wea-ry and bur - dened down with care, And feel that you have
2. The Sav-ior loves you dear-ly, and longs your soul to win, His pre - cious love would
3. He of - fers you for - give-ness, and peace, and joy, and rest, He wants to make your wan - dered from the right; Tho' all your life seems drea - ry, Your load seems hard to make your bur - den light; Heed now His ten - der plead-ing, And turn a - way from path - way fair and bright; His lov - ing arms are o - pen To fold you to His

Refrain
bear, Just tell Him you are com-ing home to - night.
sin, Just tell Him you are com-ing home to - night. Just tell Him you are com-ing home to - breast, Oh, tell Him you are com-ing home to - night.

- night, Just tell Him you are com-ing home to - night; If, wea-ry and dis - tressed, You long for peace and rest, Just tell Him you are com-ing home to - night.