

The Coming Advent

William Clark Martin, 1897

W. Herbert Lamb

$\text{♩} = 88$

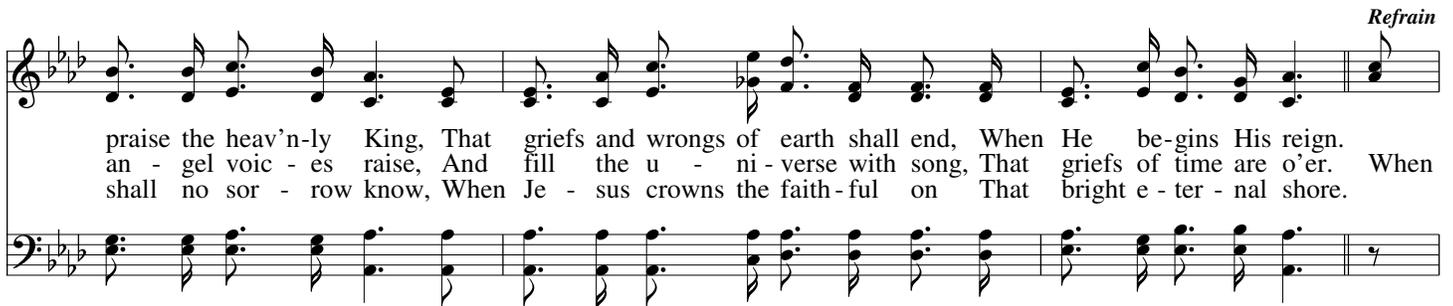

1. The Lord in glo - ry shall des - cend With an - gels in His train; The
2. The trum - pet of the Lord shall sound, And time shall be no more; Then
3. What tho' the way be rough and hard, No cross will we de - plore, Since griefs and wrongs of earth shall end, When He be - gins His reign. Then let His peo - ple sing, And songs of glad - ness shall a - bound, That griefs of time are o'er. His saints shall join the praise, The there a - waits a rich re - ward On yon - der bless - ed shore. All tears shall cease to flow, We praise the heav'n - ly King, That griefs and wrongs of earth shall end, When He be - gins His reign.

Refrain

an - gel voic - es raise, And fill the u - ni - verse with song, That griefs of time are o'er. When shall no sor - row know, When Je - sus crowns the faith - ful on That bright e - ter - nal shore.

He When He be - gins, be - gins His reign, When He be - gins, be - gins His When He be - gins, be - gins His reign, be - gins His reign, When He be - gins, be - gins His reign, When He be - gins His reign, The griefs and wrongs of earth shall end.

reign, be - gins His reign, for - ev - er end.