

Could You Welcome Him Tonight?

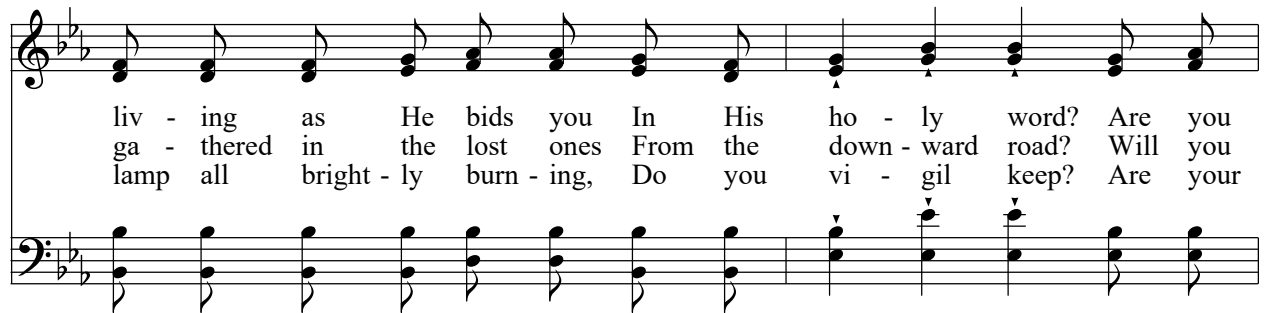

Peter Philip Bilhorn, 1911

Peter Philip Bilhorn

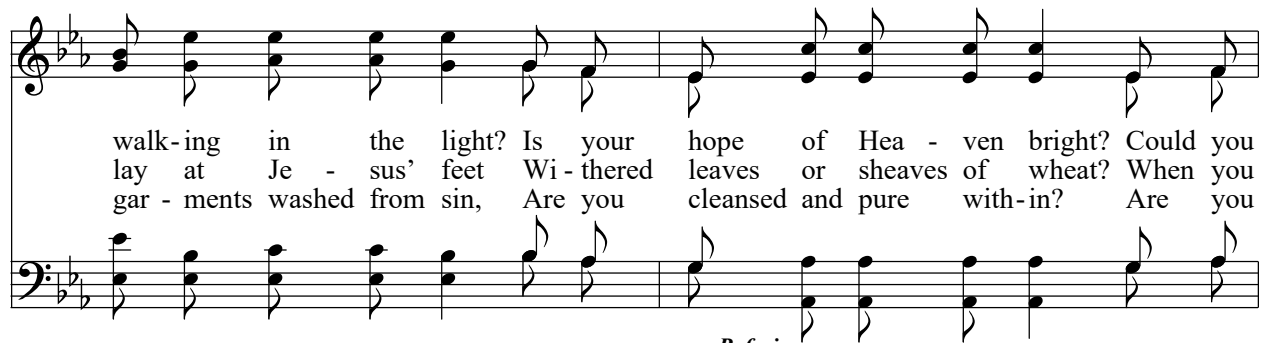

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Are you wait - ing, are you rea - dy For the com - ing Lord? Are you
2. Are you watch - ing, are you wait - ing For the com - ing Lord? Have you
3. Have you wak - ened, have you ris - en From your slum - bering sleep? Is your liv - ing as He bids you In His ho - ly word? Are you ga - thered in the lost ones From the down - ward road? Will you lamp all bright - ly burn - ing, Do you vi - gil keep? Are your walk - ing in the light? Is your hope of Hea - ven bright? Could you lay at Je - sus' feet Wi - thered leaves or sheaves of wheat? When you gar - ments washed from sin, Are you cleansed and pure with - in? Are you

Refrain
ff

wel - come Him to - night, Should He come? shall the Mas - ter meet, Should He come? Should He come, should He rea - dy for the King, Should He come? Should He come, mf 1.

come?
should He come

Could you glad - ly wel - come Him, should He come?

2.

wel-come Him to - night, should He come?