

Cross of Christ! Lead Onward

Russell Kelso Carter, 1893

Russell Kelso Carter

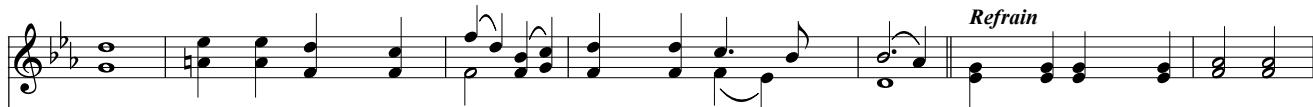

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Cross of Christ! lead on - ward, Through the ho - ly war; In this sign we
2. Not with pomp and pa - geant, Not in earth-ly pride; We must fight our
3. Pan - o - plied in grac-es, Bold, yet hum - bly meek; Rest - ing while we're
4. By a cloud en - com-passed, Wit - ness-es a - bove; Saints, a - pos - tles,
5. March-ing in the path-way That the Mas - ter trod, Walks One dai - ly con - quer, Now and ev - er - more. Not of man the pow - er, Not to man the bat - tles Like the Cru - ci - fied. O - ver-come by suff - 'ring, Con - quer through de-work-ing Strong, but ev - er weak. Tim - id, though cou - ra - geous, Gain - ing as we pro - phets, Pre - cious ones we love; While "ad-vance" is sound-ing, Mounts the bat - tle with us Like the Son of God. To the end en - dur - ing, Ar - mor ne'er laid fame; We are vic - tors on - ly In our lead - er's name.

feat; Tried and test - ed dai - ly In the fur - nace heat.
give; Cru - ci - fied with Je - sus, Yet, in Him, we live. Cross of Christ! lead on - ward, thrill. Cross of Christ! lead on - ward Where the Cap - tain will.
down Till the cross leads up - ward To the blood bought crown.

Through the ho-ly war; In this sign we con-quer Now and ev-er - more.

