

Dare to Be a Daniel

Albert E. Burk, 1924

W. J. Graves

♩ = 97

1. There's a con - flict rag - ing, all the world en - gag - ing, 'Tis the
2. Not in one day's fight - ing, all our strength u - nit - ing, Can we
3. Cour - age, then, my bro - ther, help - ing one an - oth - er, We must age long bat - tle twixt the right and wrong; And like faith - ful Dan - iel, thru the gain the great and fi - nal vic - to - ry; We need con - stant choos - ing, all our press the bat - tle ev - er on and on; We must stand like Dan - iel, firm and great Em - man - uel, We may win by be - ing firm and true and strong.

Refrain
cour - age us - ing, Trust - ing whol - ly in the cross of Cal - va - ry. Dare to strong like Dan - iel, Till the foe's de - feat - ed and the vic - try's won. Dare to be a Dan - iel true and ho - ly, In the dai - ly con - flict with be a faithful Daniel, Firm and strong and true and ho - ly, In the dai - ly con - flict here with blight-ing sin; When your heart is tried and tempt - ed sore-ly, blight-ing sin; When your heart is weighted down, And you are tried and tempted sore-ly,

Dare to be a Dan-iel, and you will win.
 Dare to be a Dan-iel true, and you will win.