

Day of Joy and Gladness

Benjamin Carl Unseld

Martha Mills Newton, 1898

♩=90

1. Christ-mas time has come at last, All our cares a - side we cast, Now let
2. Gifts from friends so true and kind Heart to heart more firm - ly bind, We would
3. If we un - to oth - ers give, We'll be hap - py while we live; 'Tis more ev - ery heart be glad and gay; All our friends and kin - dred dear, We would thank you for your gifts to - day. God ap - proves you from a - bove, Who in blest to give than to re - ceive; Let us char - i - ty dis - play, Cast all

Refrain
glad - ly wel - come here, On this long ex - pect - ed Christ - mas day.
peace and joy and love Doth un - self - ish tho'ts and acts re - pay. Oh, self - ish - ness a - way, Strive earth's want and sor - row to re - lieve.

day of joy and glad-ness, Strew hap-pi-ness a-round, Oh, ban-ish care and sad-ness, Let peace and love a - bound; Christ - mas time has come at last, All our cares a - side we cast, Now let ev-ery heart be glad and gay.