

Do All the Good You Can

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1905

William Howard Doane

$\text{♩} = 90$

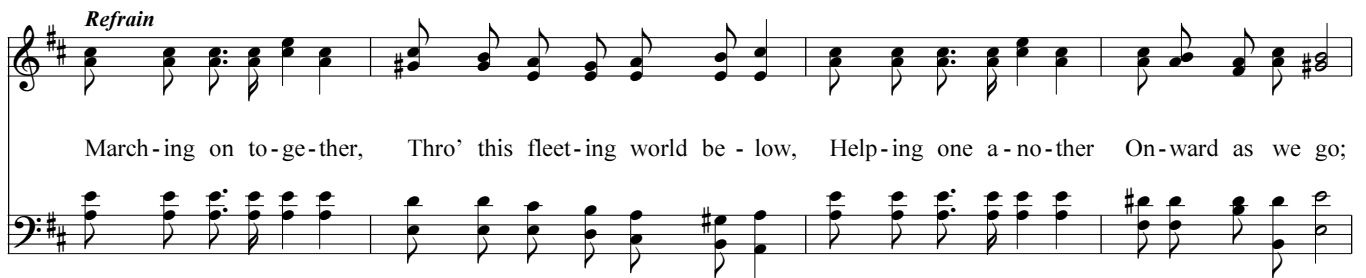

1. On - ward go the sun-beams, Shin - ing all the day; Look - ing down up - on us, Now they seem to say:
2. Hearts and hands to Je - sus, Glad - ly we will give, In the path of du - ty, Walk - ing while we live;
3. With a lov - ing spir - it, While the days are bright, Let us work re - joic - ing, Till the dew - y night;

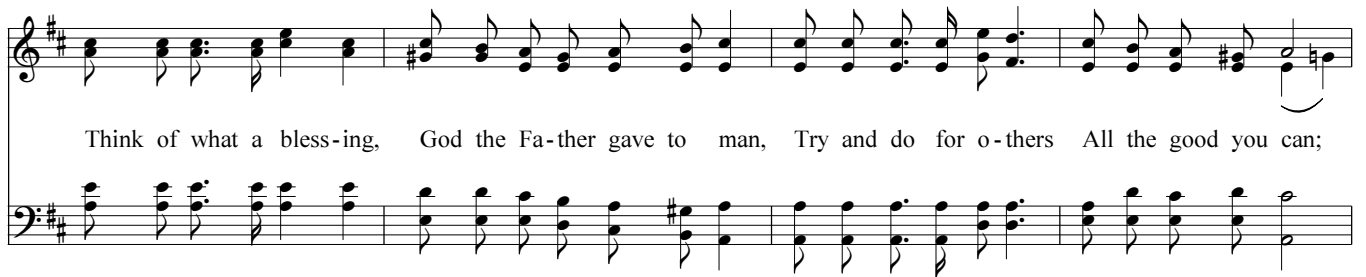

Let your smile be cheer - ful, Ev - er warm and bright, Make the hearts a - round you Hap - py with its light.
Cheer - ing on the sad ones, Lift - ing those that fall, Shin - ing like the sun - beams, Do - ing good to all.
Grate - ful for the bless - ings Je - sus brought to man, Let us do for o - thers All the good we can.

Refrain

March - ing on to - ge - ther, Thro' this fleet - ing world be - low, Help - ing one a - no - ther On - ward as we go;

Think of what a bless - ing, God the Fa - ther gave to man, Try and do for o - thers All the good you can;

Let your smile be cheer - ful, Ev - er warm and bright, Make the hearts a - round you Hap - py with its light.
