

The Door of God's Mercy Is Open

Ellen Oliver Van Fleet, 1880

E. B. Smith

♩=96 Duet

1. The door of God's mer-cy is o - pen, To all who are wea - ry of 2. The world is e'er wan-ton-ly woo - ing Your soul from the ways of the
3. So ma - ny who hear the glad mes - sage Will ne - ver its man - dates o -
4. Sad hearts there will sure-ly be mourn-ing Out - side of the gate - way of 5. The door of God's mer-cy is o - pen, In - vit - ing - ly o - pen to sin. And Je - sus is pa - tient - ly wait - ing, Still wait - ing, to wel - come you blest; But Je - sus is ten - der - ly bid - ding You turn to His heav-en - ly

- bey, But turn from the pre - cious, dear plead-ings, And will - ful - ly wan - der a - life, And pray-ing to Him they re - ject - ed When earth with gay plea-sures was all Who list to the voice of the Mas - ter, And hear - ing shall heed His sweet

Refrain

in.
rest.
- way. "Come," says the Sav-ior, "come en-ter the gate; I watch by the por-tals both rife.
call.

ear-ly and late, Lest some pre-cious soul, not far from the goal, Should wan-der a - way in - to dark-ness and hate, And miss it for-ev-er, the pearl-y gate."