

Do You Wonder Why We're Glad?

Lizzie DeArmond, 1906

William A. Post

♩=95

1. Do you won - der why we're glad? How can a - ny - one be sad, When our
2. Don't you know that Je - sus lives, And to all a bless - ing gives, If they
3. Do you won - der why we're gay, Sing - ing praise to God al - way? Well, we Sav - ior rose this hap - py Eas - ter day? From the land of E - den bright Came an will but try His ho - ly will to do? Speak - ing words of hope and cheer, Tell - ing know we have a friend who ne'er can die; From the dark and gloom - y grave, He a - an - gel robed in white, Rolled the stone, the hea - vy, cru - el stone a - way. of a Sav - ior dear, Who will give us life, yes, life for - ev - er new. Bless - èd

- rose our souls to save, Some glad day we'll live with Him be - yond the sky.

Je - sus, ris - en Je - sus, Ten - der friend of lit - tle child - ren, Ev - er kind and true; Bless - èd Je - sus, ris - en Je - sus, Still we seek Thy will to do.

