

Drifting Away

W. C. McConnell, 1911

H. A. R. Horton

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. Drift - ing a - way from God to - day, Out in the world to roam; How
 2. Drift - ing a - way from God to - day, From mo - ther, home and friend, Thro'
 3. Drift - ing a - way from God to - day, Far o'er the sea of sin; Oh!

sad the heart will ev - er be, The heart that once was pure and free, But storm - y winds that blast and blight; O'er de - sert sands and moun - tain height, Un - who will guide your foot - steps sure, And who will make your soul se - cure? 'Tis wan - dering now a - lone.

Refrain

 - to a bit - ter end. Drift - ing a - way, drift - ing a - God who dwells with - in. Drift - ing a - way, drift - ing a - way, Drift - ing a - way, yes,

- way, Drift - ing, yes, drift - ing a - way, Drift - ing a - way, away from God.
 drift - ing a - way, Drift - ing a - way